

REACH Declaration of Conformity

This declaration is applicable to iBS0x sensor beacon, iGS0x beacon gateway, and other products supplied by Ingics Technology for REACH regulation (EC 1907/2006).

The products that we supplied are categorized as “articles” according to the guidance. We do not manufacture “substances” or “preparations” and our articles do not involve the “intentional release of substances”. They are non-chemical products and under normal and reasonable use, they will not release harmful substances. Therefore, Ingics Technology is not required to register with European Chemicals Agency (ECHA).

As of the date of this certificate and to the best of our knowledge, our product and product packaging complies to REACH Annex XIV and REACH Annex XVII. They also do not contain chemical substances included on the SVHC (Substance of Very High Concern) candidate list valid from June 14th 2023 in a concentration above 0.1% w/w.
